Tradiciones Populares Mexicanas (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

"Un pueblo sin tradición es un pueblo sin porvenir", afirmaba el periodista y político colombiano Alberto Lleras con gran acierto. La esencia de las tradiciones reafirma nuestro futuro y continuidad cultural. Conocer nuestras tradiciones y nuestras historias garantiza identidad y nos une como país pluricultural ante los problemas de un mundo que, poco a poco, se globaliza y se aleja de la enriquecedora diversidad. Rescatar y difundir las tradiciones mexicanas es la tarea que la autora de este libro se propone realizar desde una perspectiva antropológica e histórica. En él podremos conocer cuáles fueron los primeros mercados que existieron en el México colonial, el origen del pan, la historia de los "Judas" del Sábado de Gloria, la maravilla del telar de cintura, algunos juegos indígenas, la increíble fundación del barrio de Tepito, el primer pan que Cristóbal Colón degustó al llegar a tierras americanas, y muchos temas más que forman parte de nuestras extraordinarias tradiciones mexicanas.

Customer Reviews

Given its audience is Mexican school children, its focus is on the most material of Mexican traditions. It's ok... I won't be using it for a university course, but I can put it on reserve for the students to use.
